The Connective Corridor

ABOUT YOUR BUS ROUTE

Bus service on the Connective Corridor bus route is free for all riders providing convenient access to the arts and cultural venues and other tourist destinations on the University Hill and downtown Syracuse, including on-campus stops at Syracuse University and SUNY College of Environmental Science and Forestry. Please refer to the map for these locations and details on all streets traveled by this route.

Bus service consists of two primary routes. Route 443 operates during normal weekday business hours and every day after 11 p.m. traveling between Syracuse University and The Warehouse in downtown Syracuse. Route 543 extends service to the Everson Museum, Oncenter Complex, and the Near West Side neighborhood during weekday evenings and weekends. Both routes stop at marked Centro bus stops along its route.

ACCESSIBILITY FOR MOBILITY DEVICES

All Centro vehicles are equipped to accommodate mobility devices classified as a "common wheelchair" according to regulations set forth in the Americans with Disabilities Act. Centro buses are equipped with mobility lifts or mobility ramps to assist passengers in boarding the vehicle.

When possible, Centro bus drivers will first board any riders that require the lift, ramp, or securement areas. Please be patient and allow these riders to board first.

This service lists regular route mass transportation services open to the public. For everyone's convenience and safety, we ask that the following items not be brought on the bus: open containers of food, weapons of any kind, and pets (unless they are completely enclosed in a cage). About the Connective Corridor

The Connective Corridor is emerging as a signature strip of cutting-edge cultural development connecting the University Hill with downtown Syracuse. More than 25 arts venues, including theaters, museums, and galleries, are located along the Connective Corridor, as well as such popular destinations as Syracuse University, Oncenter Complex, Armory Square, Clinton Square, and the East Genesee Street business, arts, and hotel district. In the coming months and years these destinations will be stitched together through new urban landscapes, bike and pedestrian paths, creative street lighting, and public art.
